

Consent to use of your personal information for the Independent Medicines and Medical Devices Safety Review.

Thank you for sharing your story with the Independent Medicines and Medical Devices Safety Review. The experiences of those affected by the interventions under Review are an important part of the Review process.

As you have shared personal information with us, it is important that we have your explicit consent to the use of your information for the purposes of the Review.

If you have not done so already, you can read more about the Terms of Reference, Review process, information handling and privacy policies on the website:

- Terms of Reference
- Review Process
- How we handle the information you provide to the Review – Data Protection and Privacy Information
- Anonymity and Redaction Framework

On the following page you will find the consent form for the use of all your personal information provided during the course of this Review. Please tick the boxes that apply, and type your name and the date, to indicate that you agree to the information you provided being used for these purposes. If you have been assigned a reference number, or multiple reference numbers, please also include those where indicated.

You can return this form by email to Reviewteam@kcl.ac.uk, or by post if you are not able to do this electronically.

If you do not wish for the Review to use your information, or if you do not return this form within 21 days from receipt, we will stop using your information and/or destroy it, as appropriate, although we may not be able to 'undo' any processing/ analysis of the information that has already been carried out.

Your consent to our use of your personal information.

The Review will hold the personal information which you have sent securely. It will not publish any of this information (though it may use selective quotes in its final Report, completely anonymised so that you could not be identified).

Please tick the boxes below and sign and date this form to show us that you agree that the Review may:-

- Read and analyse the information you have sent, to improve our understanding of the issues raised by you and by our Terms of Reference, and to make findings and reach conclusions, as required by those Terms of Reference.
- Use the information to develop questions or issues for other witnesses or organisations to answer or explore with the Review.

(Please note that any questions we ask other people or organisations will be anonymised and will not identify you. If for any reason, we felt that it would be appropriate to identify you, we would contact you and seek your permission or comments first).

- Count your submission(s) as having been received by us, when describing how we carried out our work, in the final Report.

Name:.....

Date:/...../.....

Reference number(s):

You have the right to change your mind about any of these consents at any point. If you do, please contact the Review at reviewteam@kcl.ac.uk. We will stop using your information and/or destroy it, as appropriate, although we may not be able to 'undo' any processing/analysis that has already been carried out using the information provided.

If you have any further questions please contact the Review's Data Protection Officer Priyesh.patel@kcl.ac.uk.